Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On November 11, 2010, our board of directors determined not to renew our engagement of KPMG LLP, which is currently serving as our independent auditors. The decision was recommended and approved by the audit committee of our board of directors and approved by our board of directors. KPMG was notified of the decision on November 12, 2010. We plan to seek the engagement of, but as of the date of this report have not engaged, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to audit our financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2011.

During the two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 and the subsequent interim periods through and including November 11, 2010, there were no (i) disagreements between us and KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused KPMG to make reference in connection with their audit report to the subject matter of the disagreements or (ii) "reportable events" as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The audit reports of KPMG on our consolidated financial statements as of and for the past two fiscal years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. KPMG's report on our financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2009 and 2008 did contain separate paragraphs stating, respectively:

"As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has changed its method of accounting for uncertainties in income taxes effective January 1, 2007, due to the adoption of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes", included in ASC Subtopic 740-10, "Income Taxes — Overall". Also discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has changed its method of accounting for convertible debt instruments effective January 1, 2009, due to the adoption of FASB Staff Position APB 14-1, "Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments That May Be Settled in Cash upon Conversion (Including Partial Cash Settlement)", included in ASC Subtopic 470-20, "Debt with Conversion and Other Options", and the consolidated financial statements have been adjusted for the retrospective application of this standard."

"As discussed in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, effective January 1, 2007, the Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes"."

We adopted the accounting methods discussed in the paragraphs above in order to adhere to U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The audit reports of KPMG on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2009 and 2008 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

Following the completion of the audit by KPMG of our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2010, we will file an amendment to this Form 8-K in order to update the disclosure required by Item 304 of Regulation S-K as it relates to KPMG and our fiscal year ending December 31, 2010.

We have requested KPMG to furnish a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether KPMG agrees with the above statements made by us. A copy of this letter will be filed within 10 business days of the filing of this Form 8-K.
