Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Effective December 1, 2005, TTM Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") entered into a new Employment Agreement with Kenton K. Alder (the "Employment Agreement"). Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, Mr. Alder will continue to serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company for an initial term expiring December 1, 2008, which initial term shall be automatically renewed for additional one-year terms unless timely notice of non-renewal is given by either the Company or Mr. Alder. The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Alder will receive a base salary of $350,000, which may be increased from time to time at the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors. In addition, the Employment Agreement provides that, in the event Mr. Alder's employment is terminated by (1) the Company without "cause" (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or (2) by Mr. Alder for "good reason" (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Alder would be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to 18 months of his base salary. In the event of a "change in control" (as defined in the Employment Agreement), the vesting of any stock options held by Mr. Alder that are assumed by the acquirer would be immediately accelerated if Mr. Alder's employment is terminated by the acquirer for cause or by Mr. Alder for good reason within 12 months after the change in control.

Effective December 1, 2005, the Company entered into an Executive Change in Control Severance Agreement (the "Severance Agreement") with Steven W. Richards, the Company's Chief Financial Officer (see Item 5.02 below); Clay Swain, the Company's Senior Vice President - Marketing; and Shane Whiteside, the Company's Chief Operating Officer. The Severance Agreement provides that, in the event the executive's employment is terminated by (1) the Company without "cause" (as defined in the Severance Agreement) during a "pending change in control" (as defined in the Severance Agreement) or within 12 months following a "change in control" (as defined in the Severance Agreement) or (2) by the executive for "good reason" (as defined in the Severance Agreement) within 12 months following a change in control, the executive would be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to 12 months of the executive's annual base salary, and the vesting of any stock options assumed by the acquirer would be accelerated.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

Effective November 30, 2005, the Company promoted Steven W. Richards to Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Mr. Richards previously served as Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary of the Company. A copy of the Company's press release announcing the selection of Mr. Richards as Chief Financial Officer is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.

There were no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Richards and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. Richards was selected as an officer of the Company. None of the Company's current directors or executive officers has a family relationship with Mr. Richards.

TTM TECHNOLOGIES, INC. NAMES STEVEN RICHARDS AS NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

SANTA ANA, CA – November 30, 2005 – TTM Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: TTMI) today announced it has named Steven W. Richards to the position of Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, effective immediately. Richards joined TTM in May 2000 and has served as Vice President and Treasurer of TTM. For the last several months, Steve has performed many of the responsibilities of the CFO and has served as the primary investor relations contact.

“We conducted an extensive search to identify a successor CFO,” stated Kent Alder, Chief Executive Officer of TTM. “After interviewing many qualified candidates it is clear that Steve was the best candidate for the position. In addition to his credentials for the job, Steve brings familiarity with the company, significant knowledge of our industry and a strong relationship with management, the board and the financial team.

Prior to joining TTM, Richards was with Atlantic Richfield Corporation and most recently managed its investment in a natural gas joint venture in China. He has a Bachelors degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, a Masters of Business Administration degree from the University of Southern California and holds the Chartered Financial Analyst designation.

TTM Technologies, Inc. is a leading supplier of time-critical and technologically advanced printed circuit boards to original equipment manufacturers and electronics manufacturing services companies. TTM stands for time-to-market, representing how the company’s time-critical, one-stop manufacturing services enable customers to shorten the time required to develop new products and bring them to market.
